

WYNNS
COONAWARRA ESTATE

‘The Siding’ Cabernet Sauvignon

Wynns Coonawarra Estate was the first winery to be established in Coonawarra by John Riddoch in 1896. The winery is located on the world-famous strip of 'Terra Rossa' soil that produces fruit with exceptional quality.

The wine is named after the railway siding - a local landmark that played a defining role during Coonawarra's early settlement. Completed in 1898, 'The Siding' was responsible for transporting around 600 hogsheads of wine a year to Adelaide.

The Siding delivers varietal and regional character that is approachable on release, yet will still develop with short to medium-term cellaring.
